Luyao Song — Resume

Summary

I am a graduate student majoring in digital education at Xi'an Jiaotong–Liverpool University. I hold a bachelor's degree in Chinese Language and Literature, with rich hands-on experience in content operation, online Chinese-teaching project support, campus administrative management and publicity. Experienced in WeChat-account content planning, copywriting and graphic production, with measurable growth in account view counts and follower volume. Award-winning bilingual translator and bilingual writer, familiar with developing multimedia educational resources. Strong competencies in cross-department collaboration, event organisation and multi-task management, eager to apply digital education and content-creation strengths to relevant roles.

Experience

Instructional Design Intern

Jun – Aug 2026

Xi'an Jiaotong–Liverpool University

- Designed learning-related digital teaching materials and auxiliary course resources to support teaching practice for digital education projects.
- Conducted sorting of teaching-related information, collected learning demands and assisted with organising instructional design documents.

Content Operations Intern

Jan 2026 – Present

Zhejiang Shibaniang Culture Co., Ltd.

- Led content planning for the "Opening New Campuses" series on the official WeChat account, producing more than 40 high-quality articles. Integrated corporate culture with trending topics for content selection to build market image for the new campus.
- Created seasonal posters, event posters and long-form graphics for the "Huamei Zhigu" WeChat official account. Leveraged Xiumi to optimise visual presentation; individual posts gained over 1,000 views and the account acquired more than 2,000 new followers during the internship, greatly improving the official account's influence.

Online Chinese Teaching Assistant

Project

Chinese Language Education Programme

- Participated in developing online Chinese-language course resources. Used Canva and video-editing tools to produce multimedia teaching materials.
- Converted conventional linguistic knowledge into interesting digital content, effectively improving learners' learning engagement and interest.

Head of the Secretariat

Campus

University Admissions Service Center, Huzhou College
